Outbound Travel Alert Protection

We at Blue Cross ensure that our travel insurance scheme offers full protection to customers in all situations. Since the initial implementation of the Outbound Travel Alert System by the HKSAR Security Bureau, Blue Cross has offered coverage for Outbound Travel Alerts. Today, we continue to provide extended coverage for our customers to minimise any financial loss due to the issuance of an Outbound Travel Alert.

Customers can now enjoy extended coverage for ALL Outbound Travel Alert levels. Enjoy your trip, wherever you go.

- The policy/certificate of insurance should be issued not later than 1 day before the day on which the Outbound Travel Alert is issued at the place of incident.
- Cancellation of travel ticket, tour package, and other travel arrangements shall take place (i) not earlier than 7 days before the commencement date of the period of insurance and (ii) while such Outbound Travel Alert is in force.
- If an Outbound Travel Alert for your destination is already in place when the policy/certificate of insurance is issued, the extended coverage for Cancellation Charges and Curtailement of Trip benefit at the prevailing alert level will not apply. However, if the alert level is then raised during the period of insurance, the extended coverage against this higher alert level will apply as usual.
- Curtailement of the journey shall take place while such Outbound Travel Alert is in force.
- Subject to the maximum benefit limit of the plan selected.
  - Please refer to the relevant endorsement and the terms and conditions of the respective plans for details of extended coverage.
  - The Outbound Travel Alert Protection is provided by Blue Cross (Asia-Pacific) Insurance Limited ("Blue Cross"). Blue Cross reserves the right to amend the details of this coverage.
